California Highway Patrol Cadets Give Back to the Community

More than 100 cadets from the California Highway Patrol (CHP) Academy will donate their time and energies to local non-profit organizations on Saturday. Recipients of the cadets' good will: the Sacramento Children's Home and the Sacramento Habitat for Humanity.

The academy's 27-week instructional program helps reinforce the CHP's mission of providing safety, service and security to the people of California as well as contributing in a positive way to the community in which they serve. Due to its large size, the class is split into two groups.
